Republican Congressional District Convention.

FIRST DISTRICT.
A Republican Convention of the First Congressional District of the State of Wisconsin, composed of the counties of Kenosha, Racine, Walworth, Rock and Jefferson, is hereby called to meet at the village of Geneva, in Walworth county, on the 16th day of August, 1882, at 12 o'clock noon of that day, to nominate a candidate for Congress for the District for the next ensuing two years. Each Senate and Assembly District will be entitled to two delegates in the convention.

JOHN R. DENNETT,
D. B. BARNES,
E. KNOS,
T. G. FISKE,
H. S. THOMP,
Committee.

Dated July 12th, 1882.

Congress cannot keep cool, even when the temperature is favorable. It is a great session for outbursts of passion and personal rancor.

France has decided to join England in protecting the Suez Canal if the Egyptians undertake to attack the canal, and will send troops there as early as possible.

The deaths from toy-pistol wounds since July 4, are more numerous than was supposed they would be after the terrible experience of last year. It seems that the more toy-pistol is improved the greater the fatality.

From the present indications there has been nothing new found against the star route swindlers. Thus after all the flourish of trumpets made by the prosecution, there does not seem to exist a hope that the persons implicated in the gigantic swindle will be punished.

There is a rumor coming from Madison that General E. E. Bryant's friends have decided to make no aggressive campaign for him for the congressional nomination. The Evening Wisconsin thinks it probable that the Democratic delegation will cast their votes for Mr. Keyes. But this is a mere conjecture, and it is far more likely that Mr. Keyes will not be a candidate.

It has been frequently asserted that it is unsafe for a lady to attend the sittings of the House of Representatives while Mr. Benterworth continues a member, on account of his disgusting vulgarity. It will be pretty safe to make the conjecture that the blackguardism of Benterworth is exaggerated. At times he is indiscreet and extremely unmanly, but that he improves every opportunity when ladies are present to parade his vulgarity, is not true. If it were true, all other members of Congress would be as guilty as he for not demanding his expulsion at once.

To show the animus of the Democratic creature in South Carolina, the Bourbon Legislature of that State engaged in the scandalous business of making congressional districts by dividing counties and even townships, in order to destroy the large Republican majority in certain counties. When the Bourbon scheme been effected, the Republicans in Congress very wisely decided to dispose of all the contested election cases reported from the Committee on Elections, before this session ends. In justice to themselves and to the country, the majority ought to dispose of every case which has been investigated by the committee. Every friend of fair and honest elections will sustain the Republicans in ousting every Democrat who holds his seat through fraud.

The mysterious disappearance of the six-year old son of School Commissioner R. C. Spencer, of Milwaukee, took place on Sunday evening, about half-past six o'clock. The little boy has been seen about that hour with another boy a few years older on one of the streets not far from the home of the Spencers, and since that time nothing has been heard of him. The boy knows his name, which is Ernest Daly Spencer. He is small of his age, and has light hair. His eyes are grey, and very large. When he disappeared he wore a blue sailor suit, the blouse trimmed with white braid; a blue elastic undershirt; high buttoned shoes, the top of one slightly worn; a brown-trimmed straw hat, with a chequered crown and broad, black band. The theory of the police is that the boy wandered off and became lost or has met with some accident, while the distracted father and mother think he may have been abducted for the purpose of securing a reward. The distracted mother is the daughter of Daniel Whitton, who lived in Janesville many years, and whose brother was the late Chief Justice Whitton. Mrs. Spencer being so well known in this city, she will have the deepest sympathy of many here in the hour of her supreme affliction.

The North America Review for August is an unusually interesting number. The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher writes of "Progress in Religious Thought," pointing out the many influences, social, educational and scientific, which are by degrees transforming the whole structure of dogmatic belief and teaching. T. V. Powderly, the official head of the Knights of Labor, the strongest union of workmen in the United States, contributes a temperate article on "The Organization of Labor." The well-known British military correspondent, Archibald Forbes, writes of the "United States Army," "Woman's Work and Woman's Wages," by Charles W. Elliott, is a forcible statement of one of the most urgent problems of our time. The author sees no advantage to be derived from the employment of woman in man's work, whether of brain or hand; such employment he insists only reduces man's wages, and does not really add to the total resources of the whole class of workers. In a highly interesting essay on "The Ethics of Gambling," O. B. Frothingham analyzes the passion for play with rare ingenuity. "The Remunerations of Public Servants," by Frank D. Y. Carpenter, gives matter for serious consideration, both to the civil service reformers and their opponents. Finally, there is a paper on "Artesian Wells upon the Great Plains," by Dr. C. A. White, of the Smithsonian Institution. The Review is sold by booksellers generally.

NEWS FROM THE WIRES

The Arrangements for Mrs. Lincoln's Funeral at Springfield.

Which will Take Place on Wednesday Afternoon.

The Encounter Between Sullivan and Wilson in New York.

The Brutal Affray Called Together an Audience of 16,000 Persons.

A Chicago Jury Indicts Madeline Stiles for Murder.

MRS. LINCOLN.

SPRINGFIELD, July 17.—The remains of Mrs. Lincoln have been embalmed. The Hon. N. W. Edwards has received a telegram from Secretary Lincoln dated at Pittsburgh, Pa., which states he will arrive at 4:30 o'clock to-morrow evening. He goes to Chicago to-night, where he expects to meet his wife and children, who have been spending the season in Colorado. Until his arrival no definite announcement as to the time of the funeral of his mother will be made. The relatives of Mrs. Lincoln have arranged to have the funeral take place Wednesday at 10 o'clock a. m. from the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. J. A. Reed and other clergymen will officiate. The remains will be deposited in the family vault under the tomb in the first crypt, to the left of the center. Her wedding ring, bearing the inscription "A. L. to Mary, November 4th, 1812; Love is eternal," will be placed upon her finger and interred with her.

It is stated to-day that Mrs. Lincoln's estate, not reckoning apparel and personal effects, is $74,000. This is all in United States bonds.

The arrangements for the funeral are very elaborate, and business in the city will probably be entirely suspended during the hours of services.

Always Refreshing.

A delicious odor is imparted by Morrison Cologne, which is always refreshing, no matter how freely used.

SULLIVAN AND WILSON.

The Contest Witnessed by an Audience Numbering 16,000 Persons.

New York, July 17.—It is safe to say that no other event in the sporting circles of New York for years past, has created the excitement that was made by the recent announcement that Sullivan and "Tag" Wilson would fight in Madison Square Garden this evening. Sullivan was much surprised to find that though he knocked his man down nine times in four minutes, Wilson "bobbed up serenely." At the conclusion of the terrible four rounds, Wilson claimed his $9,000, and was anxious to know if Sullivan would like a little more practice at the same high price. The crowd was enormous by the doors were opened, and by 9 o'clock admission was refused to those who were still trying to get in. The enormous garden was crowded as full as ever before in its history. At 10 o'clock the two fighters came out. They were dressed each by seconds, while Harry Hill acted as referee, having been chosen beforehand to fill that post. Both were stripped to the waist, and wore skin-tight guaze drawers with ornamental belts, so that the physical developments of each was fully displayed. It has been told many a time and again that Sullivan's form is one of ideal beauty. If his head were dismounted, he would serve as a sculptor's model for a statue that should combine the Apollo and Hercules. Wilson's appearance, however, is not so well known in America. He has none of Sullivan's beauty, but does not lack in points which only a pugilist can appreciate; deep-chested and with enormous development of the bodily frame, he lacks in length of limbs, although his arms seem long in proportion to his body. It was evident enough from the beginning when time was called when time was called that Sullivan did not despise him, for the hammer and tongs business that began at once showed that no child's play was intended by either man. The gloves were fitted on securely, and after they were on by Captain Williams to see that no foul play was intended, and then the "fun" began. It is safe to say that no such exhibition of superb brutality was ever before witnessed in public in New York. While it is true that gloves were worn, and that therefore the awful blows that were struck neither broke bones or drew blood, yet the brutality of a game fight was complete in all other respects. That such exhibitions, repeated, would prove popular in New York is demonstrated by the facts of this evening; but they would be popular exactly as bull-fights or the games of the Roman hippodrome would be. As each blow that seemed enough to kill the strongest man was struck, the audience yelled with delight, and more than one savage shout went up.

THE STILES CASE.

CHICAGO, July 17.—The case of Thera Starks, alias Madeline Stiles, was taken up by the Grand Jury yesterday, and an indictment for murder found against her. The consideration of the case occupied nearly two hours—a long time, considering the fact that in ordinary murder cases where the evidence as to who committed the killing is direct and not presumptive, it only takes about ten minutes to find a true bill. There must, therefore, have been some hitch in the jurors' minds as to whether the killing was a malicious act and with intent to commit murder, or whether it was done in self-defense. The trial of the accused will not occur, of course, until the September term, and perhaps not until a later month, as many other cases are on the docket to be tried first. As an indictment for murder, however, has been found, all expectation as to a possible application for fixing bail is ended, as in the case of an indictment for murder no bail is allowable.

Milton.

—James Home, one of the early settlers of our town, died on Tuesday, the 11th inst., after a long continued illness, at the age of sixty-six. Deceased was born in Aberdeenshire, Scotland, June 18, 1815, and came to Canada from his native land when a young man. From the dominion he moved to Illinois, and in 1837, almost a half century ago, came to Milton, then a wilderness, and entered a claim. He bought his land from the government and until the day of his death had lived upon it. The Milton Congregational church was the second church of the denomination in Wisconsin, and its humble building stood upon his land. Mr. Home was an energetic business man, respected as a citizen and honored as a Christian. For many years he had been a member of the Rock Prairie Presbyterian church. During the past five years he has been quite unwell, his disease being the most skillful physicians and in spite of the most faithful and loving care he gradually failed until death relieved him of his burden. He leaves a wife and eight sons, and daughter, and three of his sons, William, Peter and John, reside in Milwaukee, one, James, at Kirtland, Ill., and the other children here. The funeral was very largely attended by relatives, friends and neighbors of the deceased, and the services were conducted by Rev. F. W. Hallinger, pastor of the Congregational church, who spoke from Is. 64:1 and the remains were interred in the village cemetery.

—Mrs. Nancy Hall, widow of Gardner Hall, died at her home in this village on Wednesday morning, after a brief illness. Deceased was eighty-two years of age, and had resided in Wisconsin nearly half a century. The funeral services took place at the S. D. B. church, Milton Junction, Saturday morning, and the burial took place at Rock River.

—The contract for gravestone highways in the town of Milton has been let to Joseph Davis, of this village, at twenty-five cents per cubic yard. The appropriation for that purpose aggregates about $750.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. Daved, who have been visiting friends here, returned to their home at Dodge Center, Minn., Thursday night.

—The M. E. Sunday school enjoyed a wet weather picnic at Cloud Lake last Thursday. The season of '82 will be noticeable for all time as an anti-picnic year.

—Mrs. C. E. Booth and Laura, have returned to their Elroy home. They will be missed by their Milton friends.

—W. B. Wells had a very severe attack of cholera morbus last Wednesday, but is all right again now.

—Mrs. Foster's child has been quite ill, but is convalescent at the present writing.

—The park was bereft of its greenness last week, through the medium of a mowing machine. It presents an improved appearance.

—Mr. Alexander's people are converting the part of their building used as a store in the long-ago, into a handsome room.

—If nothing unfortunate occurs, the apple crop in this section will be enormous. —Clarke will sell you a good watch at astonishingly low figures.

—The commencement number of the college Journal appears this week. It is a double number.

—Miss Mann, of Minneapolis, has been visiting Milton friends for some time past.

—Onion growers are breaking their backs these days, this wet weather making their onion beds look like a sea of mud.

—D. G. Owen, representing Chandler Brown & Co., of Milwaukee, was in the burch last Wednesday looking after the grain trade.

—F. W. Boutley, of Edgerton, was in town last Thursday. "Ben" is always a welcome visitor here.

—D. F. Brown has been "slinging type," in the Telephone office for a few days. "Fichibus" is an amateur compositor.

—Frank Trus and wife, of Osage, Ia., were in town visiting Milton relatives on Saturday. Frank has no more of good friends here.

—C. F. Saunders, baritone player in the Milwaukee Soldiers Home Band, is home on a furlough.

—Willard Stone has taken unto himself a "better half" and although we don't know her name we wish them much joy "all the same," and so do the smokers who have turned his cigars into ash.

—Jno. M. Saylor has been granted a patent on his press and shearing machine. Davis shipped one on a Monday to Philadelphia parishes that punches a ½ inch hole through ½ inch iron and shears ½ inch iron six inches in width.

—Mr. Coon and wife, of Edgerton, were among the visitors in town last week.

—Daymaking is being prosecuted between Showers.

—Ex-U. S. Marshal Hilding and wife, of Chicago, were in town Saturday, the guests of Dr. Borden.

—Dorwell Stone, who has been sick for some time past, died on Sunday night. He had resided in the town of Johnston for many years and was known by everybody in this locality. At the present writing, Monday, the time for the funeral has not been announced.

PLAIN TALK.

Andrew's Pearl Baking Powder Company Makes Statements That Admit of No Doubts on the Subject and Easily Understood by Interested Parties.

We have never considered ourselves self-satisfied philanthropists like the Royal Baking Powder Co., to make invading comparisons of our competitors' goods through the press or to pay chemists to make them up for us or to alight to the press in concealed advertisements in order to increase the sale of Andrews' Pearl Baking Powder.

We do not find any high-minded, first-class, reputable manufacturers in any class of business, like King'sford's or Duryc's Starch Company, or Babbitt's Soap Company, restoring to this method of offending trade, which would bring upon them a storm of indignation, the scorn and contempt of every honest business man in the country.

The Royal Baking Powder Co. still persist in publishing that Andrews' Baking Powder contains alum, having been so decided, as they say, by Dr. Love, government chemist for the Indian department, although we stated through the press some time ago, that we made and sold two kinds of baking powder, of different qualities as the trade might demand, making no misrepresentation when the goods were sold. But the Royal Baking Powder Co. takes this method of offending the public to infer that the cream tartar powder sold under our brand of Andrews' Pearl, is the one referred to in the bigamous form of "Andrews' Baking Powder contains alum," and sustained by the analysis of the government chemist for the Indian department, instead of giving the names of our brands which are prominently printed upon our labels. In order to settle this question permanently and ascertain if our baking powder was known and sold under the brand of Andrews' Pearl is meant, we make this public challenge:

CHALLENGE.
$1,000 that Andrews' Pearl Baking Powder is free from alum, but the principal ingredient is cream tartar and is not injurious.

$1,000 that biscuits made from Andrews' Pearl Baking Powder are perfectly healthful and free from deleterious substances.

$1,000 that Andrews' Pearl Baking Powder does not and never did contain alum or injurious ingredients.

$1,000 that Mr. Mott neither is nor ever has been the regularly authorized commissioned government chemist for the Indian department, as stated by the Royal Baking Powder Company.

$1,000 that Dr. Love neither is nor ever has been the regularly authorized commissioned government chemist for the Indian department, as stated by the Royal Baking Powder Company.

$1,000 that there is not nor ever has been any such officer known to the government as a regularly authorized commissioned chemist for the Indian department.

This challenge as a whole to be accepted within ten days from this date, July 15th, 1882, each party to select a chemist, and these two a third, and the decision of the majority to be final. The analysis to be conducted publicly in Milwaukee before Dr. Martin, health commissioner, and the powder to be purchased by him in open market among the leading grocers of Milwaukee or Chicago. The successful party to pay all expenses of the public test.

We make these challenges in no boastful spirit but to definitely state our willingness to test the merits of Andrews' Pearl Baking Powder as to its purity and rising qualities.
